The conference report on the fifteenth amendment bill was discussed and adopted by a strict party vote.

Schenck reported a bill to reduce the internal revenue taxes.

Washington News

WASHINGTON, May 27 — The Senate Committee on Territories has finally agreed on all the details of a bill for the new Indian Territory. It provides that the Territory shall be created and established within the Indian Territory bounded on the north by Kansas west by the one hundredth meridian south by the northern boundary of Texas and east by western boundary of Arkansas and will be organized under the name of the Territory of Oklahoma. The details of the bill provide the same features for the government of the Territory as are in force with respect to other Territories.

The Chicago Times special says the contest over the Northern Pacific Railroad bill is said by old members to have been the most remarkable ever witnessed in Congress. The yeas and noes were called on eleven different amendments. It is freely declared to-day that that the franchise as perfected by the bill is worth $100,000,000.

WASHINGTON, May 27 — A bill passed providing to create a Government for the District of Columbia.

Fenian Affairs

OGDENSBURG, May 27 — The Fenians discredit the reported arrest of Gen. O'Neil saying the man taken was personating him as a part of the plan of action, and that he was seen yesterday.

ST ALBANS, May 27 — The Fenians Col. J. H. Brown and Capt. Monahan have been arrested and held to bail. It is reported that Thomas Murphy captured by the Canadians will be hanged to-morrow. Generals Meade McDowell, Hunt Ingalls and Van Vleet are here. A portion of the troops have been sent to Malone. Many of the Fenians have gone home. Others remain.

TORONTO, May 27 — The Fenians are reported leaving Malone for home. It is rumored that a Fenian force is gathering on Detroit river. Ample provisions have been made in that quarter.

QUEBEC, May 27 — A frigate will be here to morrow with the 78th Regiment from Halifax.

OGDENSBURG, May 27 — Seven thousand Canadian volunteers passed down the St. Lawrence on steamers which also had 200 tons ammunition for the seat of hostilities. Most of the troops at Prescott are ordered East. The Government is pushing every available battalion to the front.

NEW YORK, May 27 — Six hundred Fenians left to-night for the North. Rumors are afloat that the Fenians captured two companies of Canadian volunteers above Malone. It is improbable. It is stated that the Fenians lost at Huntington seven killed and several wounded.

NEW YORK, May 27 — A special from Malone says Gleason has received dispatches to the effect that O'Neil will be released to-morrow that Spear is again marching for St. Armand with 1,500 men from St. Albans and that his (Gleason's) brother holds an intrenched position on Pigeon Hill with four hundred men and will wait for Spear. Gleason is endeavoring to make a move here and threatens to blow up the docks of Mahoney canal and retake the arms now in possession of United States soldiers. The latter are in sufficient force to prevent a move unless the Fenians conceal their plans.

TORONTO, May 27, 10 A. M. — The Fenians near Trout River commenced an attack this morning but were rapidly driven back across the lines.

Later — The Fenians got out of the way as fast as possible after firing commenced, leaving their wounded behind. Gen. Gleason went back to New York disgusted. Gen. Starr is assuming charge.

ST ALBANS, May 27 — The only Fenians that left for home last evening were the Burlington boys. The rest remained here to answer. They are provided with food by the U. S. Marshal, farmers and village authorities. One hundred Fenians have gone into camp near here under orders from Gen. Spear. The Government ... announces that the Fenians must be paid by the State government.

Chinese Laborers. The Herald's Misrepresentations Corrected

The following letter from the President of the Oregon and California Railroad Company to the employees of the Company on the railroad is a clear and plain refutation of the assertions of the Herald relative to the alleged proposed employment of Chinese laborers on that work.

OFFICE OREGON AND CALIFORNIA R. R. Co. PORTLAND May 28 1870

To the Employees of the Oregon and California R. R. Company: Reports having been circulated through the columns of the Daily Herald of Portland and otherwise to the effect that the employees of the Oregon and California Railroad Company would, soon after the coming election be displaced by Chinamen, and also that a contract had been entered into with Wa Kee a Chinaman by which Wa Kee was to furnish a large number of Chinese laborers to work on the Railroad (all of which reports are utterly false) I deem it but right that they should not be permitted to go unanswered.

In regard to the first charge, I would say that it has never been my intention and is not now the intention of the Oregon and California Railroad Company to displace any employee on the line of Railroad for the purpose of filling his place with a Chinaman. It is my intention and the intention of the Oregon and California Railroad Company to carry on the work on the Railroad with white labor just so long as it is possible to secure that kind of laborers.

The undersigned has not himself or by any agent neither has the Oregon and California Railroad Company by me or by any of its officers or agents contracted or negotiated for the employment of Chinamen with Wa Kee or with any other Chinaman, or white man or any man or person whatever. Neither has the undersigned nor the Oregon and California Railroad Company intended or proposed, and do not now intend or propose to put Chinamen on the works if white labor can be procured that up to this time we have had no difficulty in securing — white men, whom we prefer, and with the influx of immigration to this State now fully inaugurated by the construction of our road we anticipate no delay or difficulty in securing all the white labor necessary to carry on the work. We not only prefer white men on the score of economy but because they will assist in developing the State after the completion of the road, by investing their earnings as well as their future labor here, and paramount to everything else we prefer that white men should have our money instead of China men.

Our Company will complete and fully equip one hundred miles of railroad by the first of January 1871 for which our company have the necessary amount of money subject to their sight drafts.

As a complete refutation to the charge made in the Herald that a contract had been entered into for the employment of Chinamen I append the following card from the Captain of the Hattie C Besse.

CARD

To the Editor of the Herald. The following announcement appears in your columns of to day

CONTRACT BETWEEN HOLLADAY AND WA KEE

We are credibly informed that the Captain of the Hattie C Besse stated in the presence of a number of gentlemen in this city, that on the late voyage of his vessel to China, Sam Foy the agent of Wa Kee told him that Wa Kee had entered into a contract with Ben Holladay to furnish a large number of Chinese laborers to work on the Railroad and the return cargo of the Hattie C Besse would be the first installment of those laborers.

I cannot conceive why my name should have been connected with this matter, and I simply desire to say that the Herald has been misinformed as I have never stated in the presence of a number of gentlemen in this city or to any person in this city or any other place that Sam Foy the agent of Wa Kee or any other Chinaman had told me on the late voyage of my vessel or at any other time that Wa Kee had entered into a contract with Ben Holladay, or any person, to furnish a large number or any number of Chinese laborers to work on the Railroad or anything to that effect.

You will confer a favor on me by giving this a place in your columns.

Signed W. H. BESSE, Master of the Hattie C. Besse.

Trusting that the foregoing may serve as an answer to the numerous misrepresentations of the Herald and its political emissaries, for the past month I am very respectfully your obedient servant BEN HOLLADAY, President Oregon and California R. R. Co.

Railroads and Politics

[illegible] telegraph stated ... weeks ago that a bill had passed the Senate granting lands to aid in the construction of a railroad from the Central Pacific at some point on the Humboldt river to ... valley. It appears that the Democratic organ of this city has just heard of it, at any rate it suddenly makes the matter the subject of a fierce assault on Senator Williams with a view of course of injuring the Republican party if possible. It is asserted that the Central Pacific company stood ready to build the road if the grant was made so as to bring it into the Wallamet valley at Eugene City on the route the military road so-called but that Mr Williams at the instigation of Ben Holladay had it changed so as to cause it to come in at Rogue river. Then follows the usual exclamations about Ben Holladay's monopoly, and Williams' betrayal of his constituents and finally the people are appealed to not to allow a Republican Legislature to be chosen lest Williams may be re-elected.

As to the political portion of this out-burst of campaign rhetoric, we have only to say that Republicans throughout the State are not making a fight on Judge Williams or any other man for the Senate. The first object is to elect a majority of the Legislature and then to elect a Republican Senator. In the event of the election of a Republican Legislature the choice might fall on Judge Williams, or some one else. That would be a question for the Legislature to decide. The Republican party is more prominent than Judge Williams or any man in it, and the issue just now is the success of one party or the other. Small politicians often think it a great thing to "spring" something just before an election and to magnify it into a matter of vast importance and this no doubt accounts for the attempted introduction of a new railroad question at this time. Though the event is one that has been well known for some weeks in Oregon it would appear that the Herald has either been ignorant of it or has kept it back as a "great issue," to spring just before the election. We rather think it would make more by sticking to greenbacks, tariffs and Chinamen.

Now as to the other feature of the case, which relates to railroads. If the Central Pacific company or any other company want to build railroads in Oregon nobody will object. But when it comes to talking about "monopolies," there is something to be said about the Central Pacific as well as about the Oregon and California road. It is a well known fact that the Central Pacific company is at this moment the most gigantic monopoly on the Pacific coast. It owns every mile of railroad in California. It has that State completely under its control. It dictates legislation and holds every interest in the State at its mercy or disposal. All its operations, as far as possible, are carried on with Chinese labor. It is the great over grown, absorbing corporation of the West. Now, as we said before, we should be glad to see this company or any other build railroads in Oregon, but when it comes to talking about placing Oregon "at the mercy of a monopoly," and a California monopoly at that, there is an argument here that will tell with some force, whenever it is duly considered. The people of Oregon, certainly are not desirous that the Central Pacific Company should get supreme control of their State, as it now has control of California. It has been a common remark that Oregon has been too long already a dependency of that State. This strife that is growing up between rival railroad systems is to be looked at with a perception broader than mere local ideas. The subject reaches much farther than the temporary political controversies and ordinary partisan animosities, which are apt to grow out of it. In the nature of things there must be rivalry between those who are at work in these great enterprises. It is business, on a great scale. The railroads now building in Oregon are on an independent footing and will go forward. It is only natural that the Central Pacific company should desire to control them and to grasp the State and on the other hand it is natural that those whose interests are different should oppose the great California monopoly.

Heretofore there have been two routes proposed by which Oregon could be united with the Central Pacific road. One of these routes was by way of Rogue river valley the other by the middle fork of Wallamet river. Each route has had its advocates. The people of Southern Oregon have been deeply interested in the route which would give them as well as the whole western part of the State, connection with the overland trunk line. Other parties and especially those interested in the military road land grant from Eugene City, have been strong advocates of the route from that place. When the pending land grant came up in the Senate Mr. Williams doubtless considered that he was looking to the interest of the whole State in requiring the branch road to come in at Rogue river valley. Can any one show why the State would not be well served by such a road? There are to be two roads to the head of this valley,—one on each side of the Wallamet river then a road on to the Southern boundary of the State and extend ing into California. A branch from Rogue river valley to the Central Pacific would thus bring all Western and Southern Oregon in direct communication with the transcontinental road. The whole State in fact would be served by it. On the other hand it is undeniably true that if the other route were adopted Southern Oregon would be cut off and Umpqua and Rogue river valleys would be left without any eastern connections.

We have said this much to show that there is more than one way of looking at this subject, as there generally is of all subjects of importance. But it is obvious that the present stress that is laid on it is caused by the near approach of the election. For about a week yet people may look out for these and similar bursts of indignation from the opposition organs.

Gov Salomon's German Speech

There was a large audience almost exclusively German at the court house Saturday evening to hear Governor Salomon speak in the German language on the political topics of the day. He spoke with great earnestness and with apparent effect. The audience interrupted him frequently with applause prolonged and enthusiastic. We learned from our German friends that no speech of the campaign has given greater satisfaction than this nor any one which has had greater effect upon an audience. The speech was not only earnest and forcible but frequently eloquent and argumentative throughout. The Governor has made many personal friends by his visit to Oregon and we believe that he has won many votes to the Republican ticket.

Pulling Against the Stream

The frantic efforts which the [illegible] are making to magnify matters of the most trifling hard ter nt affairs of great import ance whose fate is to be decided on the approaching election indicate how little capital that party has to [illegible]. It has no national or State policy to announce it has no measures to bring forward that can stand the test of discussion. All its [illegible] consists of vague negations and [illegible] shreds [illegible] exploded [illegible] and [illegible]. [illegible] it is trying to patch up into some kind of shape so that they will hold together for this occasion. Some of the opposition are still denouncing the "Abolitionists," others are delivering fierce diatribes against reconstruction, others are preaching repudiation and others still are harping on the Chinaman. All are going on with this irregular fight without an idea that has even the smallest practical application to the times or to the condition of the country. There is no consistency and therefore no force in their efforts. Few of them even of the leaders, can tell what they are contending for or what they expect to accomplish. Their opposition is mere irregular desultory warfare carried on without any definite purposes or objects. Their party is an incongruous batch of opposition elements composed of men who don't like the great political movements of the last ten years and who are actuated by resentment against them. They are like men who try to pull irregularly against a strong and steady stream that is continually bearing them on in spite of their unavailing opposition. They make a splash and splutter for a while and then give over the contest.

Another "Great Issue" Exploded

The documents we publish elsewhere will we suppose be considered pointed and emphatic enough as a refutation of all that has been charged relative to the importation of Chinese for railroad work, and also relative to the alleged intention to discharge all white laborers from the railroad and put Chinese in their places. Had those who have been charging that ship loads of Chinese were being imported for this purpose, taken pains to ascertain the fact they need not have given publicity to an untruth. They could have gone to the agent of the Chinese in this city, who would have told them that no contract of the kind had been made. The Hattie Besse was chartered by the Chinese for a round trip to Hongkong and back, and they who chartered her had the privilege of shipping freight or passengers or both as they chose. It is well known that all the business of the Chinese here is done through their agent, J F McCoy Esq. The articles by which he is authorized to transact their business have been published. He would have informed these persons of the true state of this matter so that they need not have rushed into print with assertions that they could not maintain. He would have told them that, so far from there being any contract to bring Chinese laborers here for the railroad he offered last fall to contract with the company for Chinese laborers, and was told that they were not wanted. It would seem from the showing which has been made that another "great issue" that much was hoped from, has exploded.

Editorial Notes

It is announced that the Democratic State Central Committee of Missouri have decided not to call a State Convention to nominate candidates for the ensuing general election. They see no hope of success and think it useless to put a ticket in the field.

The chinaphobic organ says that it is Senator Williams' influence that is preventing the elimination of the word "white" from the naturalization laws and keeping up the bar to Chinese suffrage. This is a very good argument for Mr Williams. Does the chinaphobic organ suppose that any Democrat, sitting in Williams' place could do as much? The grief of the organ is that it was extremely anxious to have the word "white" stricken out, so that Chinese could be naturalized, and it is sorely disappointed at seeing that it is certain not to be done.

The Herald constructs a long political editorial on an article that appeared in the Christian Advocate of Saturday the design being to prejudice German born citizens against the Republican party. Viewed in a political or party sense, we do not see the point or applicability of the Herald's article. The Advocate is a religious not a political or party paper. It has nothing to do with party politics and the article in question contains not a word to which any political or partisan signification can be attached. The Herald must be in sore straits for something to say.

The very fair (!) and conscientious (!) Democratic organ of this place, having published for political effect a false statement relative to the Captain of the Hattie Besse refuses to print a card from the Captain in which the statement is corrected. Its false statement has gone out through the country (to the extent of its limited circulation) and it declines to give publicity to a truthful correction of the same. It thus without provocation, publishes a falsehood about a gentleman and then refuses him the opportunity for a simple denial. This we suppose is an illustration of its ideas of "gentlemanly journalism."

The statement that whole ship loads of Chinamen are being brought here under contract to work on the railroad is substantiated by Grasshopper Jim in this convincing manner viz He (Grasshopper Jim) has been told by somebody (name not announced) that certain gentlemen (names not stated) told him that Capt Besse told them that Sam Poy (a Chinaman) told him that Wa Kee (another Chinaman) told him that Ben Holladay told him that he wanted Chinese laborers for his railroad and that the Hattie Besse was to bring a load from China for that purpose. But the chain of this convincing statement is broken right in the middle by a denial from Capt Besse. Grasshopper Jim is at his wits end and confesses his inability to forge another link for the broken chain of his overwhelming testimony.

OREGON CITY May 29 1870

EDITOR OREGONIAN

The Oregon City Enterprise publishes a statement of my fees for the twenty two months that I have been County Clerk of this county, and says that I have never made any record of what those fees were for. I here state that the Enterprise publishes a falsehood for every bill that I have rendered for the inspection and approval of the County Court was examined and read item by item to the Court and ordered paid and filed, and is a matter of record with the files of the County Court papers, and say that I never have charged this county one cent but what the statute defines in fee bill; and state further, that the Court orders all stationery bought by me for the use of the Clerk's office, Sheriff and Court both Circuit and County, and the bill is always rendered in the name of the party furnishing stationery.

Respectfully J M FRAZER,
County Clerk.

The Republican Party

The N Y [illegible] for [illegible] art [illegible] on the Republican party with the following [illegible] No dispassionate man can doubt that the Republicans have upon the whole deserved well of the country. They have endeavored to carry out the will of the people with fidelity, and in the teeth of innumerable obstacles. The President has honestly fulfilled his pledges and avoided all the errors into which his immediate predecessor fell to the great disturbance of public affairs. We believe then that we may appeal with confidence to the people in all the approaching elections. We have yet many things before us to accomplish but what we have achieved in the past is the best guarantee for our work in the future. With reduced taxation and a revision of that part of our revenue system which checks rather than encourages the prosperity of the nation we shall be able to say that no other existing organization could or would have done half so much to promote the common good."

Governor Salomon and his Critics

Gov Salomon we are assured by the Copperhead organ is a person of no consequence. His speeches it characterizes as of little force and of no value to the Republican party. Yet the same paper has an editorial more than a column in length in which it labors with all its strength to meet his arguments and break their force. We notice, besides in its columns a long communication from a person who signs himself a "German Democrat," in which an attempt is made to counteract the influence of Gov Salomon's speeches. But the communication was evidently written by one of the small politicians from Missouri who are now numbered among the leaders of the Democratic party of Oregon. No German wrote it, or could write it. The Missouri politician is reflected from every part of it. The native Missourian who wrote it has not the smallest conception of the German character. It is laughable to see one of these gentlemen from Pike attempting to play a part of this kind. It is one of the best comedies of the times.

Letter from Vancouver

VANCOUVER W T, May 27, 1870

EDITOR OREGONIAN

The Herald of this morning contains some resolutions passed by the Democratic Club of this city censuring Republicans for having disturbed the Blinn meeting held here on Wednesday. The charge is absolutely untrue. Blinn, in his tirade of abuse and vituperation, which lasted for two hours saw fit to attack the private character of outside parties, and among them he charged Capt Adams with not paying his board bills, whereupon Mr Adams arose and pronounced the charge a base lie. The Democrats who had turned out en masse then proposed to put Capt Adams out of the house and made the only disturbance that took place during the meeting, but they desisted upon seeing the resolute countenances of the Republicans who would have made it an unhealthy job for them. The Republicans of this county congratulate themselves that "Thompson's Colt" has made his appearance among them. If heretofore any weak brethren have doubted the propriety of supporting the regular [illegible] doubts are all dispelled now. It was too plainly seen that a conspiracy had been formed between the Cops and the Bolters to defeat Garfielde. When Blinn arrived the Democracy took full charge of him. The Democratic Club had gathered in their followers from all portions of the county, and boys were paid fifty cents a piece to make a noise upon a given signal by one of the leaders. Dennison, Blinn and Hewitt were in caucus with Democrats continually and although they had promised Hon L. Holmes Republican, to divide time with him they failed to redeem their promise. Of the speech itself, it is only necessary to say that it was the most abusive vituperative and vile harrangue ever delivered in the Territory. Mr Garfielde was called by Blinn, a dog, a liar and a double-dyed traitor. Old Hewitt called him a gambler, a traitor and a dissipated man generally. The latter charge came with ill grace from a man who is generally known in the Territory as the best player of "sinch," and who was never known to sling a whisky cock tail over his shoulder. Not one word was said concerning the material interests of the Territory or the great issues of the day. "Mix was a perfect gentleman would make an excellent Delegate and an able advocate of the people's rights," and Garfielde was a dirty dog and a miserable wretch. Oh! that Garfielde had been present for thirty minutes! The way he would have raised the scalps of Blinn, Dennison and Hewitt, skinned them alive and nailed up their hides to dry, would have been a terrible warning to all slanderers. But these men dare not meet the lion face to face. They throw their missiles at a safe distance. The meeting adjourned with three rousing cheers for Garfielde. It was announced that Governor Salomon would make a speech on Thursday and in order to prevent his getting a crowd they planned an excursion trip to the Cascades, and invited everybody to take a free ride. But their trick was not successful. The Democrats all went, but the Republicans all stayed, and Governor Salomon had the largest and most enthusiastic gathering held in the county this year, excepting Mr Garfielde's meeting. His opportune presence had a most salutary influence. Cheer after cheer went up from the immense crowd plainly attesting that the great popular pulse was beating strongly in favor of Mr Garfielde. He, with other speakers again addressed a large crowd in the evening the Governor speaking in German. The occasion was enlivened by several songs by the Olympia Glee Club, who were enthusiastically cheered. This morning the Governor visited several portions of our county, in company with a number of gentlemen to inform himself of the resources of the county. The Governor exhibits great intelligence energy, and devotion to the Republican cause and will make a popular officer.

Blinn & Co returned late in the evening from the Cascades where their mission was a fruitless one and shortly after departed on the [illegible] Troup for Puget Sound. Before his visit to Clark county he had five supporters now there are only two left. On the 6th day of June the name of Garfielde will sweep over Clark county like a great tidal wave overwhelming all opposition and consigning Thompson's colt and his little faction to a well dressed and everlasting oblivion. Yours,

REPUBLICAN.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY

[From the Seattle Intelligencer May 23.]

Sheriff Wyckoff informs us that the taxable property of this county [King] this year amounts to $,10 895. The population he states is 2 200.

Among our new advertisements will be found one calling for sealed proposals for the care, maintenance and medical treatment of sick and disabled seamen entitled to hospital relief in Puget Sound District. Bids must be sent in on or before the 6th day of June.

We received a visit from D Khintworth Esq President of the Allgemeine Colonizations Gesellschaft at Chicago Illinois on Wednesday last. Mr K informed us that he had visited many localities along the Sound and was favorably impressed with the country. Mr K has left town on his return to Chicago.

The Seattle Jockey Club organized on Saturday evening by the election of F A Dyer President, C C Perkins Secretary and E. Thorndyke Treasurer. The Club adopted the Metairie rules and the Memphis weights and arranged a programme of races for the Fourth of July which will be published hereafter.

We regret to learn that Prof J H Hall of the Territorial University met with a serious accident on Friday afternoon in the University grounds. It appears that Mr H was amusing himself in company with some of the students jumping from a swinging bar or trapeze and in descending fell and sustained a compound dislocation of the right leg.

We understand that E Meeker Esq intends to publish in August a work on Washington Territory West of the Cascade Mountains which will contain—a general description of the surface of the country—the navigable waters the timber of Puget Sound—the farming lands and productive capacities of the soil and climate—the fisheries of Puget Sound and Columbia River—ship building—the facilities and attendant advantages—giving a general description of the boundaries, population, wealth and resources—towns and cities—the coal and coal mines of the Puget Sound basin—general summary. As it is the intention to place the book in the hands of every family it cannot fail to promote the general good.

His companions (to ... spoken) followed his ... the ... of the O P ... example ... when thus left ... and once may be ... and but ... knotted and ... combed locks ... His eyes ... the coals did glow with concen ... the vessel of flint, he buried ... and ... the contents down his throat bounded from his —the contents and rushed to the sidewalk and in language most replete with piquancy and fire expressed his opinion loudly of men who would act in such a way to any gentleman gave each individual the privilege of taking up what he said, and only desired them not to double teams on him and he'd teach them better manners. The wrath and indignation of the Old ... was not easily appeased the urbane proprietor attempted to soothe him with more of the dark fluid but in vain. At length he rushed from the house to a place a few blocks off where wild animals are kept, seized a club and nearly wore it out on a brown bear that he found chained in the yard. He has recovered, however. We saw him yesterday. The same kindly benevolence ... we are accustomed to spread itself over his ... countenance as he quietly observed ... You boys rather got me last night but I got even on the bear.

RECORDS OF REAL ESTATE.—The Records at the County Clerk's office of transfers of real estate are rapidly accumulating. The following have been entered since our last report:

PERSONAL.—We have had the pleasure of meeting with Lieut Wm Kappus Collector of Customs at Sitka now here en route to San Francisco on business connected with his office in the Territory of Alaska. He is looking particularly well, and speaks favorably of that new acquisition to Uncle Sam's domain. By the inauguration of a mail line to Sitka from Port Townsend, W T, the people of Alaska are now in communication direct with the outside world as the steamer Constantine is making regular trips. Judge D N Denny late of Wasco county W J Bradbury late of Clackamas county and Mr S B Parrish late of this city were passengers to this port by the California on Sunday evening last. They all appear as familiar as in days of old, when we were wont to meet them almost daily and as yet really identified with Oregon and her best interests and although we have given them up to the sister State of California we believe they are all more than half inclined to again claim their homes among us and make this their final place of residence.

THE WASP'S MACHINERY.—In company with Mr Fix President of the Willamette Iron Works, and Hon Allan Francis U S Consul at Victoria, a few days ago we took a short ride upon the propeller Wasp with a view of witnessing the working of a new kind of steam engine, and propeller patented for the inventor, Mr Nation, of this city. The engine could not be very well described by one so little versed in mechanics or the construction of power as the writer without suitably illustrating the subject with drawings, but we can say this much—that we believe the principle worked out in this engine will revolutionize the means of applying steam to various kinds of machinery. The Wasp was built purposely to test his new engine, and any person interested in seeing two engines combined in one driving two propellers for one boat occupying less space than any other class of engine, so arranged as to reverse one propeller and go ahead on the other if so desired when geared direct can be gratified by an inspection of the Wasp's machinery.

A Good Order.—We understand that hereafter on the arrival of the ocean steamer the gates of the wharf will be closed and no runners hotel coaches or hacks will be allowed on the dock until after all the passengers have been landed. If this is to be the regulation, as indicated, it is most assuredly a good one, as any person can testify who may have been at the wharf on Saturday evening last as the California landed We were in momentary dread of the wreck of some human being—woman or child—on that occasion by the clash and jam of hotel coaches hacks drays trucks and and market wagons but most fortunately no body was hurt that we know of Infection in the Air.

Experimental chemists have repeatedly analyzed the air at unhealthy seasons in the hope of detecting the invisible virus which produces epidemic disease. They have not yet discovered it and scarcely any two of them agree as to its nature This is of little consequence It is sufficient to know that this poisonous principle exists and that a safeguard against its insidious influence has been provided In the spring and early summer when fever and ague remittent fever and other periodical diseases of that class are prevalent, it is only necessary to fortify the system with a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters to escape them If this precaution has been neglected which it never ought to be in any district liable to such visitations and if the paroxysms of malarious fever have actually commenced, and may always be checked and broken up by a course of that powerful vegetable tonic and alterative Quinine was once considered the only specific for chills and fevers but it is now generally admitted that this nauseous alkaloid is a dangerous medicine and that its secondary effects are more to be dreaded that any form of intermittent fever It is simply a tremendous astringent It does not touch the disordered liver or regulate the bowels or in any way improve the condition of the animal fluids Hostetter's Bitters on the other hand in addition to being a better and safer tonic than any preparation of quinine has a balsamic effect upon the whole system It is aperient and anti bilious as well as directly invigorating and purifies the secretions as well as regulates the secretive organs It stimulates the appetite strengthens the stomach soothes the nerves promotes healthful perspiration and induces quiet sleep As a stomachic it has no rival Cases of indigestion that no other tonic seems capable of alleviating are cured in a few weeks by its regular use

Vanderbilt—How He Treats His Friends

... M ... new ... we extract the following

... belief that Vanderbilt never ... his friends is not generally assumed to be true by brokers

... is a tradition that in years gone by ... the Commodore used to ride down to the ... homestead on Staten Island he would ... meet a man who continuously offered to ... his horse. Something in the appear... of the stranger struck Vanderbilt ... inquired into his history ... had been ... seemed a broker ... street ... failed badly ... try life

If you will come to the city I will start you again said the King of Central

Nobody could be more grateful than the Staten Islander. He returned to Broad street ... upon the Commodore's hints and in the time began to prosper. Brokers soon had faith in this protege of the great man. They watched his movements at the Board and bought and sold in accordance

One day the Commodore was planning a large operation. In came Blank seeking for a point. "I'm buying ... railway ..."

Blank buys bravely; the street follows. Presently down slips the stock and the Staten Islander is henceforth a lame duck. One of the Commodore's stool pigeons is what the irate brokers chose to name him

Similar incidents trustworthy or otherwise, are narrated by the dozen

Horace Clark, Vanderbilt's son in law, was always a favorite with the stately old gentleman. The current gossip about his marriage is not lacking in amusement

Clark was a high spirited man even when poor. Having decided to wed the young lady, he called upon his future father in law and, without preliminary began

"Commodore, I wish your daughter in marriage."

"Hey?" quoth the money king

Clark repeated his words

"You mean you want my money," growled Vanderbilt from his chair

"You and your daughter be d——d," flamed out the young lawyer, as he clenched his hat in his hand and turned to leave the room

"Hold on, young man," said Vanderbilt, straightening himself on his feet and looking wonderfully suave and paternal. "I told I rather like you. I didn't say you shouldn't have my daughter. You may have her. I rather like you, young man."

Clark never did get much of the Commodore's money, except in indirect ways. He had shares in speculations, and was always well supplied with points. Once Vanderbilt proposed to use him. Clark lost hundreds of thousands of dollars. He boldly told his father what he thought of it, and after a time the losses were made good. The habit of utilizing everybody has been exercised, if we may trust rumor, on nearly every member of the family. William Vanderbilt is credited with having been favored in this way. One day his father came to him and suggested that he had better sell Hudson—110 was too high

"Thank you," said the son

Nevertheless, William concluded to look about first. The stock kept steady with ups and downs of fractions of one per cent. By peculiar ways it was discovered that the older Vanderbilt was buying quietly

William determined to follow suit. Up jumped the stock to 137. It was a clear 26 per cent in pocket

When the operation was concluded the Commodore rode around to the son's office.

"Well, William, how much did you lose?"

"I went in at 110 on 10,000 shares. That ought to make me $260,000—"

"Very bad luck, William," quoth the father, trying to look extremely troubled— "very bad luck this time."

"But then I bought and so made."

"Hey? What set you doing that, sir?"

"O, I heard that was your line, and so concluded that you meant long instead of short."

"Ahem!" croaked Vanderbilt pere, as he buttoned up his fur overcoat and stalked out of the door. He always had a high opinion of William since that event

The Code

LETTER FROM AN OLD SKOOPENDIKE STUDENT—THE "CODE OF HONOR" FULLY EXPLAINED

CINCINNATI, May 3

Editor Cincinnati Daily Times—SIR As there seems to be considerable difference of opinion in this community concerning the "Code of Honor" and the subject is exciting a good deal of comment and discussion, I have taken pains to obtain from the best authorities the following concise and everyway reliable statement of it. If any of your readers get shot according to these rules, their last moments will be soothed by the reflection that they fell according to the "code" in its strictest interpretation

1. Any one "posting" an antagonist must recognize the "Code of Honor" when he meets it on the street

2. "Posting" can in no case be done without a bill poster's license

3. When a man calls his antagonist another without previously allowing him an opportunity to retort "so am I" he shall be compelled to pay for the support of the child

4. After receiving an insult by express or otherwise, the course under the code is, first to pay the express charges, then retire to some secluded spot for reflection, and afterward ask the insulting party what he is going to do about it anyhow.

5. If a man is knocked down on the street, and hasn't got his code with him he is entitled to a reasonable length of time in which to hunt up his code and find out what course to take under the circumstances.

6. No man is obliged to notice an insult, unless he is insulted according to the code

7. A coroner has no right to "post" a man while he is alive. When he is dead (if he dies according to the code) he can post mortem

8. If a man runs away with another man's code his wife is entitled to a divorce

9. When a person feels aggrieved at anything another person has said or written about him if he don't like it he can lump it

10. One man sending a challenge to another must pay the postage

11. No man shall pull another man's nose without first reading to him the ... of the code under which he does it

12. When a man wants to insult another he should studiously abstain from using any insulting language

13. It is not considered gentlemanly to post yourself. You should employ a bill poster

14. In a duel no gentleman is allowed to shoot his antagonist twice in the same spot

15. When a man finds that he has been killed contrary to the code he is entitled to ... his antagonist on sight

16. If a man is knocked down in public he can demand an explanation before getting up, unless his assailant is an auctioneer ... can knock down ... code

17. One party to a duel failing to appear, the party on the ground is entitled to the gate money

18. A man's record must be perfectly clear before he can be allowed to be shot in a duel. Let me relate a case in point. In the fall of the sixteenth century Baron Von Muggins one of the greatest soap fat men of ... made ... remarks about Epphroditus Smith who runs a hand express. E... sent him a challenge but the haughty Baron Von Muggins descendant of a long line of soap-fat dealers ... him because his record wasn't clear. ... was cross eyed. ... the Baron was right

Posting is rarely resorted to in the heart of Africa. The party aggrieved cannot obtain an explanation or satisfaction (recollecting that the greatest satisfaction consists in getting kicked) then he is expected to put some affront upon his antagonist in public such as inviting every one ... to drink but him, refusing him a chaw, borrowing money of him and never paying it &c. In the memorable year ... Paperkollars a noted duelist ... tried to make the editor of the Burr Oak ... Club accept a challenge. His ... seconds tried all sorts of ways to make him take it. They pretended it was a medicine that would do him good ... tried to make him take it in sugar ... with his dessert urged him to accept it as an amendment &c but he wouldn't have it. Finally, having exhausted all means to get him into a due ... Paperkollars waited for the editor in the Rialto and upon meeting him pulled off one of his socks and slapped him ... the face with ... merely remarking "Shoo Fly" ... About Mr Thackeray Mr Hodder had frequent occasions for studying and admiring the warm humanity of Thackeray's nature ... whether he ... in an early ... pointing at Mr Hodder ... the novelist ... countenance the signs of ... mental distress ... and having ... the cause of his agitation the author to whom heartless people were ever ready to impute heartlessness, gave vent to his grief in tears ... passionate man. Letters than this ... dying ... was the fervor with which after reading the scene of little Paul's death in Dombey & Son he exclaimed to Mr Mark Lemon and Mr Hodder "There's no writing against such power as this—one has no chance! Read that chapter describing young Paul's death it is unsurpassed—it is stupendous." With equal force another page records how Thackeray while lacking the prudence and self control to adopt a course of life favorable to his decaying health, had too much honesty to attempt to disguise from himself that his "dreadful illnesses" were due to self indulgence. In reply to an inquiry whether he had taken the best medical advice to prevent the recurrence of his alarming seizures he said to his amanuensis—

What is the use of advice if you don't follow it? They tell me not to drink and I do drink. They tell me not to smoke, and I do smoke. They tell me not eat and I do eat. In short I do every thing that I am desired not to do and therefore what am I to expect?

No one who saw much of Thackeray in his latter years will on reading those words fail to remember the comical earnestness with which he used to cry "Peccavi!" with respect to the habitual indiscretions that justified the expostulations and eventually fulfilled the gloomy predictions of his medical advisers —From a review in the Athenæum of "Memories of My Time," by George Hodder

FINANCE AND COMMERCE

PORTLAND Thursday May 19 1870

Gold unchanged at 114½.

Legal Tenders quiet at 87½@88½

Our local markets are without any change worthy of note

The steamship California which arrived last evening from San Francisco brings newspapers of the 24th from which we quote the following paragraphs

From the Bulletin of the 23d. Trade in this city last week was generally good especially in the line of Groceries. The Front street houses with scarce an exception were quite busy each day from morning until night. The quantity of goods shipped during the week was much larger than for any single week for some time. As the jobbers run out of various lines of goods they draw upon importers thus improving trade from first hands. However stocks are complete in almost every particular, the recent heavy arrivals of Eastern goods by sailing vessels having been quite seasonable

The amounts collected for duties at the San Francisco Custom house for April, as well as for the four months of the year compare as follows

	April	Four Months
1866	$1 ... 040	$2 485 319
1867	600 964	2,441,550
1868	683 094	2 703 786
1869	654 880	2 470 605
1870	649 430	2 ... 086

The above figures indicate a steady import trade. It should be borne in mind however that Asiatic goods in transit for the Atlantic States now pass through in bond and hence the duties are not collected here as in former years

From New York [May 14] correspondence of the Alta. Railroad freights have been moderately active during the week, but there is a lull at the close owing to an advance of 15@20 ₩ cent in the rates ruling during the past thirty days and which brings them back to the old rates. This advance is due to the action of the Union Pacific Railroad, in which there has been a change in the personnel of the freight department the new head of which is trying to obtain higher rates at the expense of the Eastern road. However as the rates by steamer are lower, and as the time is only a few days more shippers will rebuke this upward movement by giving the next steamer a fair freight. The shipments during the week by the Northwest road included 272 kits and 25 bbls Mackerel, 228 bxs Dry Fish, 53 cs Wine, 72 pkgs Tobacco, 61 cs Boots and a fair amount of Drugs, Hardware, etc. Also a Hoisting Machine (car load) for the Occidental Hotel. The Rock Island road took 1 120 packages, including 461 pkgs Tobacco, the balance being Dry Goods, etc

In steamer freights there is nothing doing this week but it is likely that the next steamer will have a full list as the advance in Overland freights will cause shippers to withdraw from that route

Our general markets present but little animation and anything like a substantial movement is not encouraging. The only business in progress is to supply the wants of legitimate trade

The movement in Breadstuffs gained strength early in the week and prices advanced 3@4 cents per bushel for Wheat, but at the close under less favorable advices by cable, there was a shading in prices, and the advance was lost. California Flour and Wheat are quiet, small sales of the latter, at $1 75 in store, now held at $1 80 without business

Barley is dull and prices easier. California is held at 82@95c ₩ bushel, with sales of 3 500 bushel at the inside price; stock on hand includes nearly 100 000 bushels California

Beans are dull and nominal. Common $1@1 50@2 5. Marrow Fats $2@2 50 Kidney, $2 50@2 ... ₩ bushel. A consignment of California beans, recently arrived is held above the views of buyers

Wool is very dull. There is but little demand and that is only for small lots of fine grades; holders do not press their stocks but are ready to accept bids that indicate a decline in prices. California wools are moderately active but held for full prices. The sales for the week foot up 200,000 lbs California at 1½@22c for fall and 21@28c for spring clip

Hides are in fair demand, and close firm. The sales include 1 744 wet salted California 45 lbs on private terms

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of their indulgences or from virus absorbed into the system? Look at their pallid emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer a till death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years and who ... the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted ... who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities publishing their skill ... imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal weakness, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice of depraved ... indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz Sallow countenances dark spots under the eyes pain in the head ringing in the ears noise like the rustling of leaves ... about the loins weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect loss of confidence diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath coughs, consumption, night sweats monomania and frequently insanity. If relief be not obtained should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of affecting a quick and radical cure. Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured ... either of the San Francisco quacks

MARRIED MEN.

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay obtain immediate relief

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and willing to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon, stating case, symptoms length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and curiosity to any part of the country with full and plain directions for use. For Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who with bogus sworn to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths shoe makers newspaper carriers intelligence office keepers etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory, and you will not find their Medical Institutes ... but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry— ... and may save you many regrets ... advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten, are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles certificates, pretended patient's letters etc. Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial, (Private Entrance on Commercial) San Francisco. Post Office Box 952

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 952 ON THE LETTER Consultations FREE
